Report on Anti-Drug Pledge Initiative by NSS Volunteers

Date: August 12, 2024

Conducted By: Dr. J. P. Kamble(PO)

Organized By: National Service Scheme (NSS)

Introduction

The National Service Scheme (NSS) is a government-sponsored program aimed at fostering a spirit of service among students and promoting community engagement. One of its recent initiatives, led by Dr. J. P. Kamble, focused on combating drug abuse through an anti-drug pledge. This report outlines the activities associated with the pledge, its impact, and future recommendations.

Objective

The primary goal of the anti-drug pledge initiative was to raise awareness about the dangers of drug abuse and to encourage a commitment to leading drug-free lives among NSS volunteers and the broader community.

Activities Conducted

1. Pledge Ceremony:

The pledge ceremony was organized where NSS volunteers, gathered. Dr. J. P. Kamble, program officer against drug abuse, led the event. The anti-drug pledge was administered to the attendees, emphasizing their commitment to reject drug use and promote drug-free lifestyles.

- Understanding Drug Abuse: Information on the psychological and physical impacts of drug abuse.
- Prevention Strategies: Techniques and resources for preventing drug use.
- Support Systems: Available resources for individuals struggling with addiction.

Conclusion:

The anti-drug pledge initiative led by Dr. J. P. Kamble has made significant strides in raising awareness about drug abuse and fostering a commitment to drug-free living among NSS volunteers and the community. The success of this initiative highlights the importance of continued efforts and collaboration in the fight against drug abuse.

Report on Campus Cleaning Activity by NSS Volunteers

Date of Activity: September 20, 2024

Location:K N P College, Walwa Campus

Organized By: NSS (National Service Scheme)

Program Officer: Dr. J. P. Kamble

Introduction

On September 20, 2024, NSS volunteers from K N P College Walwa participated in a campus cleaning activity as part of the ongoing Cleanliness Campaign. This initiative aimed to promote environmental awareness and instill a sense of responsibility among students regarding cleanliness and hygiene.

Objectives

- To enhance the cleanliness of the college campus.
- To foster a spirit of community service among students.
- To raise awareness about the importance of maintaining a clean environment.

Activities Undertaken

1. Preparation and Awareness Session:

- The event commenced with a brief orientation led by Dr. J. P. Kamble, who emphasized the significance of cleanliness and its impact on health and the environment.
- Volunteers were divided into groups and assigned specific areas around the campus for cleaning.

2. Cleaning Operations:

- Volunteers engaged in various activities, including:
 - Picking up litter and disposing of waste properly.
 - Cleaning pathways, gardens, and common areas.
 - Collecting plastic waste and segregating it for recycling.

3. Post-Cleaning Inspection:

- After the cleaning operations, a thorough inspection of the cleaned areas was conducted to ensure all tasks were completed effectively.
- Volunteers took part in a reflection session to discuss their experiences and the importance of maintaining cleanliness daily.

Outcomes

PRINCIPAL,
KRANTISHIH NANA PATIL COLLEGE,
WALWA, DIST. SANGLI.

- The campus was significantly cleaner, with a noticeable reduction in litter and waste.
- Participants reported a greater awareness of environmental issues and a commitment to promoting cleanliness beyond the event.
- The activity fostered teamwork and collaboration among volunteers, enhancing their camaraderie.

Conclusion

The cleanliness campaign conducted by NSS volunteers at K N P College Walwa was a successful initiative that not only beautified the campus but also promoted a culture of cleanliness and responsibility among students. Such activities are crucial in developing eco-conscious citizens committed to preserving the environment. Future campaigns will aim to involve more students and extend outreach to the surrounding community.

Acknowledgments

Special thanks to all the NSS volunteers whose hard work made this initiative a success.

Report on Blood Donation Camp

Date: 01st October 2024

Organized by: NSS Unit in collaboration with Arun Bhaiya Nayakawadi Foundation and Bharti Vidyapeeth Medical College, Sangli

NSS Program Officers: Dr. J. P. Kamble and Mr. D. H. Jadhav

To mark the spirit of community service and social responsibility, the NSS Unit organized a Blood Donation Camp on 01st October 2024. The event was conducted in collaboration with the Arun Bhaiya Nayakawadi Foundation and Bharti Vidyapeeth Medical College, Sangli. The camp was held under the able guidance and coordination of Dr. J. P. Kamble and Mr. D. H. Jadhav, the NSS Program Officers.

The primary aim of the camp was to promote the importance of voluntary blood donation and to contribute to saving lives. A team of skilled doctors and medical staff from Bharti Vidyapeeth Medical College managed the blood collection process, ensuring all procedures were carried out safely and hygienically.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and other volunteers. A total of 82 donors came forward to donate their blood, reflecting a strong sense of altruism and social responsibility among the participants.

Refreshments were provided to all donors after their donation to ensure their well-being. Each donor also received a certificate of appreciation for their valuable contribution.

The Blood Donation Camp was a resounding success and served as a powerful reminder of the critical role that young citizens can play in supporting healthcare efforts. The NSS Unit extends heartfelt thanks to all donors, volunteers, and the collaborating organizations for their generous support and contribution.

Date: 11th December 2024

Venue: Ganapati Pule, Maharashtra

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit

Introduction:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a one-day educational trip combined with a social service activity — a Cleaning Drive — at the renowned pilgrimage and tourist destination, Ganapati Pule, on 11th December 2024. The objective was to promote environmental awareness among students while allowing them to appreciate the cultural and natural heritage of Maharashtra.

Participants:

- NSS Volunteers participated enthusiastically.
- NSS Program Officer and other faculty members accompanied and supervised the team.

Activities Conducted:

- Cleaning Drive:
Volunteers cleaned the beach area, temple surroundings, and nearby public places. They collected plastic waste, bottles, wrappers, and other non-biodegradable items, ensuring proper disposal.
- Awareness Campaign:
Volunteers interacted with tourists and locals, spreading awareness about the importance of maintaining cleanliness at tourist spots.
- Cultural Visit:
Volunteers also visited the famous Ganapati Temple and learned about its historical significance, promoting cultural understanding alongside social responsibility.

Outcome:

- The Cleaning Drive made a visible positive impact on the cleanliness of the Ganapati Pule beach and temple surroundings.
- Students gained hands-on experience in community service and environmental protection.
- The trip fostered teamwork, leadership, and a sense of civic duty among participants.

Feedback:

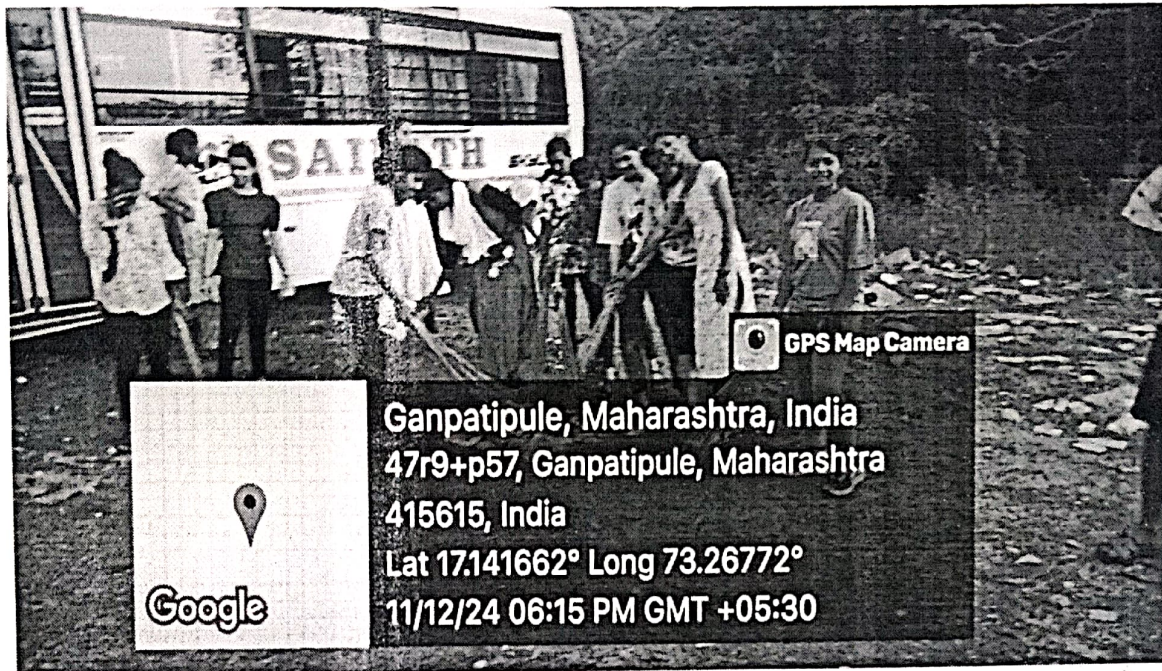

The local authorities and visitors appreciated the efforts of the NSS team. The volunteers expressed satisfaction in contributing towards preserving the beauty and sanctity of a revered place.

Conclusion:

The NSS Trip and Cleaning Drive at Ganapati Pule successfully combined service, learning, and cultural exposure. It reinforced the ideals of the NSS motto "Not Me But You," instilling greater social responsibility and environmental sensitivity among the students.
