Constitution Day of India 26th Nov. 2024

A Brief Report

There was an organization of group reading of Indian Constitution on 26th Nov 2024 in the library reading room. Students, teaching and nonteaching staff were present for this program. The principal Hon. Dr S A Nayakawadi explained values of justice, liberty, equality and fraternity enshrined in the constitution. She also added that Constitution Day of India is known as Samvidhan Divas and it is celebrated on 26th November every year to commemorate the adoption of Indian Constitution in 1949, which laid the foundation of India as a secular and democratic country.

Prof Raja Malagi sir said that Constitution Day of India or Samvidhan Diwas aims to honor the adoption of the Indian Constitution by the Indian Constituent Assembly in 1949. He added that our Indian Constitution was adopted on 26 November 1949 and came in effect on 26 January 1950. Drafted under the guidance of Dr. BR Ambedkar, our constitution enshrines the values of secularism, sovereignty, Democracy, equality, justice, liberty and fraternity for all the citizens of the country.
